Comedian

Maurizio Cattelan

This banana taped to a gallery wall is a satire about the art world, showing how value and meaning in art often depend more on context and perception than on the object itself.

Girl with Balloon

Banksy

Banksy is a mysterious British street artist known for his provocative stencil graffiti that combines dark humour and social commentary to challenge politics, consumerism, and authority.

Villa Savoye

Le Corbusier

Villa Savoye is a modernist house in France that shows how simple design creates functional, elegant living spaces. It reflects the idea of modern life in harmony with nature and technology.

Mona Lisa

Leonardo da Vinci

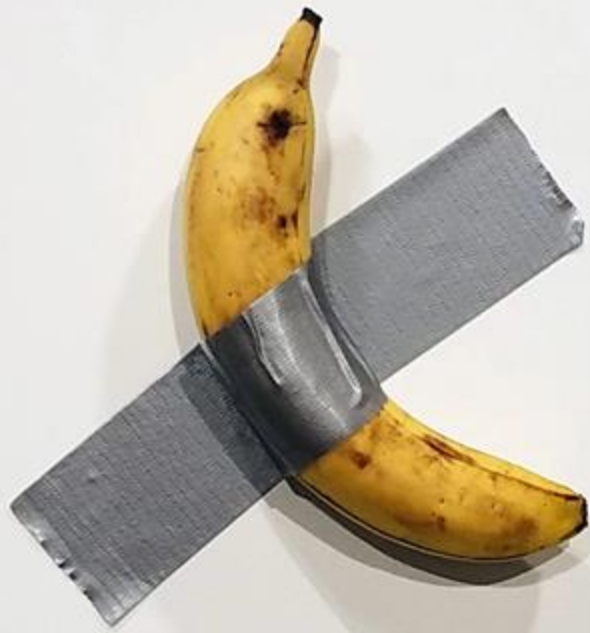

The Mona Lisa is famous for its mysterious smile and lifelike detail. It shows Renaissance ideals of beauty, realism, and human emotion.
